ORDER

Before the Court is the State of Oklahoma's ("Oklahoma") Motion for Clarification of the Court's March 24, 2009 Amended Order (Dkt. #1935). Oklahoma states that Defendants have interpreted the Court's March 24, 2009 Amended Order (Dkt. #1929) to extend the discovery deadline for all purposes. Defendants' interpretation is incorrect.

The Court's March 24, 2009 Amended Order ruled on Oklahoma's Unopposed Motion for Extension of Time for the State to Conduct the Depositions of Defendants' Damages Experts (Dkt. #1923) which requested a 29-day extension for the limited purpose of completing the depositions of Defendants' damages experts because the 45-day time period previously available to the State under the scheduling orders was effectively cut to 16 days when Defendants received a 29-day extension to March 31, 2009 to disclose their expert reports on damages. That was the only motion before the Court regarding extension of the discovery deadline. The Court's ruling, therefore, pertained only to the extension of the discovery deadline for that purpose. The deadline for all discovery other than the depositions of Defendants' damages experts is and remains April 16, 2009.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 30th day of March, 2009.

United States Magistrate Judge
